Creative Thinking and Leadership

Peter Anderson discusses Leadership as in the 'influence of change' in an uncertain world and the importance of so call 'soft skills' as a driving force for productivity. Peter questions our out of date perception of 'carrot stick' leadership and the necessity of embracing relational based leadership through the tools of creativity, mindfulness and emotional intelligence.

Peter Anderson

Peter Anderson is a leading authority on positive team development. Practising as a professional dancer and after graduating from the prestigious Rambert school of Dance, Peter now helps businesses and their people define the essence of what drives them, in order to exponentially increase their personal performance.

A Ted-X and international speaker, author and leadership coach – Peter's passion is personal development, having helped elite athletes, professional singers, business leaders and their staff exceed their expectations.
