Leadership and Creative Arts

Emotional intelligence is extremely important in effective leadership. This session discusses how knowledge of working processes of creative professionals in the arts can inform business strategies, how our beliefs about what is possible can limit productivity in business, and how to work with colleagues and clients in order to break through barriers and achieve optimum results.

Thomas Hewitt Jones

Thomas Hewitt Jones is an award-winning composer of contemporary classical and commercial music. Winner of the 2003 BBC Young Composer Competition, his music has been published by Boosey & Hawkes, Oxford University Press, Banks Music, the RSCM, Encore Publications, Universal Music, and is frequently heard on radio and TV in the UK and abroad. Thomas has written three ballets which toured the UK in 2008–2011 with Ballet Cymru, most notably a dance setting of Dylan Thomas' masterpiece Under Milk Wood. His choral and instrumental music is frequently performed worldwide.
