Skills for Small Businesses

Awesome Action Planning – Most business owners know that they need to create action plans to help them achieve their goals. So why do so many owners struggle to get this done? This practical workshop will share tips and techniques on how to create and implement really effective plans.

Gill Smith & Nigel Knowlman

Gill has over 30 years' experience in the corporate world. Her skills include project management, strategy, process improvement, financial management and automation. Gill is passionate about helping businesses find practical solutions to their problems. She believes that one of the keys to success is taking consistent effective action and managing time. She has run her own management consultancy for the last 9 years.

Nigel initially studied engineering, working in the motor industry around the world. When marketing and project management became a significant part of his role he studied marketing, strategy and small business at the Manchester Business School. He led the UK marketing team at Spirax Sarco responsible for everything from market research to advertising. He has run his own marketing consultancy for the last 5 years.
